

Please reconsider allowing utility companies to use their unshielded transmission lines to provide broadband data services. I operate exclusively at low power levels on HF bands. These transmissions will interfere with my low power signals.

Thanks